Turki Talal Algahtani

Dhahran, Saudi Arabia

turkitalqahtani@gmail.com

Objective

Seeking a challenging career with a progressive organization that provides an opportunity to capitalize on my dedication, commitment, and abilities to deliver outcomes and add value.

Strong verbal and written communication skills

Eager to learn, detail oriented, and good with numbers

Sharp eye for spotting areas for improvement

Certification

- ✓ Professional Certificate Program (PCP) in Business and Contract Negotiation (Oct, 2022)
- ✓ Be Smart. Be Secure by PwC (June, 2022)

About me

An intellectually curious and selfmotivated business-oriented graduate with a passion to reflect a positive impact and willingness for continuous personal and professional improvement. Collaborative and effective team member with a keen eye for details and process development.

University of Business & Technology (UBT)

Bachelor's Degree, Supply Chain Management

2020

King Fahad University of Petroleum & Minerals (KFUPM)

Associate Degree, Supply Chain Management

🗎 Experience

PwC (Price Waterhouse Coopers) Middle East – Internship

June 2022 - September 2022

- Worked in a team of industry-specific experts in developing and providing professional advice, guidance, and actionable solutions to government and semi-government entities.
- Led and presented an initiative for a client to establish a database platform that gathers policy/regulations for the respective sector, along with its core initiatives.
- Contributed to developing a national communication plan for a government entity related to a strategic initiative that engages public and private sectors and other key stakeholders and aims into enhancing the sector practices and performance.
- Updated and reported the initiatives progress for a government entity in a weekly basis to provide further clarity for the respective decisions makers.

KIA Saudi Arabia – Internship

June 2019 - August 2019

- Coordinated and distributed an importation bulk of cars among multi different warehouses across the kingdom based on customers' demand.
- Aligned the logistics flow of cars from the point of origin/manufacturing to the point of dispatching out of the warehouses to ensure efficiency and minimize disruptions.